

NEW HAMPSHIRE ALUMNI
OF SUFFOLK UNIVERSITY LAW SCHOOL

“As you grow older, you will discover that you have two hands: one for helping yourself, the other for helping others.” - Sam Levenson

Since 2006, the New Hampshire alumni of Suffolk University Law School have supported a Loan Repayment Assistance Program for Suffolk Law alumni working in public interest law in New Hampshire. Throughout this time, the Suffolk Alumni program has made over 50 awards totaling nearly $15,000 – helping your fellow Suffolk alums working at NH Legal Assistance, the Disability Rights Center, the NH Public Defender and as county prosecutors. Many of these lawyers have substantial student debt and earn substantially lower salaries than their peers in the private sector.

This program, established in partnership and administered by the NH Bar Foundation, encourages Suffolk Law graduates to pursue public interest law and serves as an incentive for future law graduates to come to New Hampshire and commit, for at least part of their careers, to helping disadvantaged people preserve their rights and navigate the legal system.

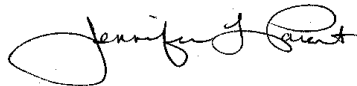

This repayment program relies solely on support from Suffolk Law alumni like you. Help continue this tradition of helping your fellow alumni use their legal skills to advance the public good. Even a modest gift will feel good, and it will do good.

Thank you for considering a gift. Any help you can provide will be very much appreciated.

Very truly yours,

Roger B. Phillips
