REGULAR BUSINESS

A. Call to Order

President Mary Tenn called the meeting to order at 4:35.

PRESENTATION / DISCUSSION / ACTION ITEMS

B. Approval of Litigation Guidelines Revisions

(emailed to BOG 2/26/16)

Jennifer Parent, Chair of the Committee on Cooperation with the Courts, presented this document. The Committee, with representation from every court as well as a number of practice areas, updated Litigation Guidelines originally adopted in 1999 to incorporate changes in technology, rule changes, as well as electronically stored info (ESI). The Committee is working on the best way to distribute the guidelines, and how to financially support this distribution.

Possible application of the guidelines, which are not rules, was discussed as they pertain to criminal practice, and it was suggested that the “civil” wording be removed from the title.

ACTION

On Motion that the Litigation Guidelines be adopted, with word “civil” removed from the title and otherwise as presented. Passed. Unanimously.

C. ABA House of Delegates Report

Russ Hilliard, ABA State Delegate, reported on the recent ABA Mid Year meeting. He spoke about the discussion and subsequent adoption of Resolution 105, the Model Regulatory Objectives for the Provision of Legal Services (concerning alternative legal service providers). Russ added that similar guidelines were adopted at the National Conference of Chief Justices meeting the week prior to the ABA meeting.

Russ also noted that law students recommended that US Supreme Court oral arguments be videotaped. The justices were against it, but the recommendation passed the ABA House.

There was discussion and recommendation that all states adopt the Uniform Bar Exam. The recommendation passed, as did a related resolution that there be a study to make sure there will be no discriminatory adverse effect.

President Tenn urged the Board members to ask questions at tomorrow’s CLE on the topic of Resolution 105.

D. Public Sector Section Discussion

Scott Eaton, Chair of the NHBA Public Sector Section gave the Board background about the section. Currently this section has 22 members; 9 of which are lawyers that have been admitted to the Bar in the past year.

He stated problems are meeting attendance, and section member interest and willingness to serve as an officer. Scott said that members don’t see a value in attending meetings; and there needs to be leadership to change this attitude. They have talked about using listserv more, sponsoring lunch-time CLE’s and other things. Chris Marshall, Public Sector Governor agreed with Scott that they would like to refocus the purpose of the section. They would like to have further discussion with section members and other attorneys, and then if it is felt there is no need for the section, to come back to the Board to ask for it to be dissolved.

Chris shared a concern that still exists among public sector members that their interests are not well represented at the Bar. There are about 900 members who fall under this classification.

Chris Marshall commented that he feels that the NHBA needs the Public Sector Section more than the section needs the Bar. There is some feeling of alienation from the Bar by those lawyers working in the public sector. He asked for ideas from the Board and the Association about how to keep these lawyers connected. He thinks it would be a mistake to dissolve the section and believes it is a valuable forum for communication. It was noted that if we can come up with ways to engage this group we will be revered around the country, as every Bar struggles with this issue.

President Tenn pointed out that these questions are an example of a “dig deeper” mini survey that could be done to follow our recent member survey.

There was some discussion as to whether the Board should consider reduced or waived public sector section fees. It was decided to put this on the Board agenda for April. Scott Harris agreed to work with Scott Eaton and Chris Marshall on this issue.

E. Finance Committee Audit Firm Recommendation

Peter Hutchins, NHBA Treasurer, described the bidding process. He explained that the committee looked at financial as well as procedural considerations when considering the bidders. The committee is recommending a firm out of Massachusetts, O’Connor and Drew. There was a question about whether the Bar would be charged tax, since they are a firm based in Massachusetts. Paula will look into this and let the Board know.

ACTION

On motion- To approve the recommendation of O’Connor and Drew as external auditor for the next three years, subject to clarification of whether business services tax needs to be paid (since the firm’s primary place of business is in Massachusetts). PASSED. Unanimously.

(Secretary’s Note: Paula Lewis ascertained that the NHBA would not incur a tax on the services of O’Connor and Drew.)

F. Finance Report

The Board received the Treasurer’s report from Peter Hutchins. The Bar is on target to have about the same positive contribution (a measure of revenue against expense) as last year. Currently the Bar is $200,000 ahead of budget projections, mainly due to the timing of some expenses. Capital spending was below budget projections as of January. This is also due to timing, as well as delay of some expenditures until next year. It was also reported that the recent member survey will cost slightly more than the amount that was originally budgeted.

ACTION

On Motion to accept the Treasurer’s report. PASSED. Unanimously.

G. Membership Survey – Initial Indications

Vice President Scott Harris noted the survey has been hugely successful; with over 600 responses, the data it has produced is as good as we could possibly have expected. Director of Communications Dan Wise shared his “take-aways”, including that the Bar’s challenge is serving a membership whose needs are broad. The survey showed a lot of the priority continues to be CLE, but defined more broadly than the current offerings. Members are looking for career planning and help with transition as well as professional development. The Bar needs to look at what services are currently being provided, as well as needs that are not currently being addressed. Other observations include:
- Strong response indicates that many members see the Bar Association as valuable; the nature of their responses indicate that the Association needs to do a better job of adapting to their needs, which are diverse.
- Responses present a wide range of ideas and suggestions—a lot of them involve continuing legal information and information—going beyond substantive law into issues of career planning and transition.
- There is a recognition that the profession is changing. 20 percent of members—from both the under 50 and the over 50 groups—expect to leave the profession in 10 years.
- Overall, members need, and want, more for less...leaders will be dealing with these conflicting signals. The survey pros point out this is always indicated, and that the take away is a critical need to deliver recognized value.
- There is a HUGE range of need in our unified organization. We need to continue to develop ways for members to self-select and access what they, individually, need—not always to be provided by us.

President Tenn stated the results reflect that the focus put into the developing the survey has paid off. This will give us good data to use as future decisions are made about the direction(s) in which to move.

While Jackson, Jackson and Wagner survey team continues their analysis, the initial results will be distributed for Board review and continuing discussion. A work session will be scheduled for all interested Board members with JJW. The plan is to make the data work for us over the next one to five years.

H. President’s Report

- Resignation of President-Elect David Ruoff - Mary noted President-Elect David Ruoff submitted a letter of resignation from the Board of Governors. This leaves a vacancy in the Board leadership. The officers of the Board of Governors intend to let the President-Elect vacancy remain, and cover the duties between them for the next few months. At the June meeting Scott will become President-Elect, and the office of the President of the Bar will remain vacant, with Scott fulfilling the duties of the President, as called for in the NHBA Constitution. The officers will rely on the Board to share the load. The officers think they have a good plan to continue the work in place. Peter Hutchins will chair the Finance Committee. Mary will continue to sit on the NHMCLE Board, and officers will ask Board members to fulfill some other duties.

- BOG Election Slate

Mary reviewed candidates for the upcoming election.

I. Executive Director’s Report

- John Jay Crime Reporting Fellowship Award
  Dan reported on Kristen Senz’s receipt of this selective fellowship. Kudos to Kristen who took the initiative and applied for the opportunity. As part of the fellowship follow-up, she will work on a reporting project for Bar News about the impact of opioid addiction on certain populations.

- National Association of Bar Execs/National Conference of Bar Presidents Midyear Meeting points of interest
Jeannine shared the following items that were discussed at the meeting:

- How the legal practice is changing
- An association is about professionals coming together to advance their profession and society, not just the focus on customer service
- Associations are the only place to address the changes coming in an orderly and timely fashion
- Cognitive decline as the profession ages and how associations are focusing on helping lawyers with this issue
- Presentation on how our brains are wired for unintended bias
- Unification challenges are back; the Chapman decision has kept us from trouble that other unified bars have gotten into Jeannine also shared that she continues her work with the ABA Standing Committee for Division of Bar Services. As noted in the past, it is an honor for New Hampshire to have representation on this committee; she is the only non-lawyer currently serving.

- This year’s midyear meeting is tremendous; a record-breaking meeting for the Association, thanks to President Mary Tenn’s vision. She also gave a shout-out to Cheryl Moore, registrar. She started a wait-list and personally coordinated with people when we created an overflow room. Jeannine is proud of other staff as well. She noted Bar leaders from other New England states and Boston will be in attendance.

- Compliance Deadline Consolidation
  - Informational Efforts
  - April 7th Workshop
  - Practical Impact

Jeannine gave the Board an update on this work with the Supreme Court. It was a tremendous amount of work to re-engineer these processes. The Bar staff has developed an online reporting tool for Trust Account Compliance, which will be unveiled in time for this summer’s filing. We have also been working with the Court on rule changes that are required to implement the new process. Work to inform members of the changes has been started. There will be an April 7th workshop on the new process, where a lot of information will be shared. The new process is being called 311 - three steps to do it, one place to do it, and one deadline.

Jeannine also shared that Rosemarie Atwood, Member Services Coordinator is leaving the Bar Association. Her duties have temporarily been divided up and staff have stepped up to cover these responsibilities in the interim. This vacancy will be addressed as the Executive Director plans staffing to meet member needs in the future.

The monthly activity report, formerly known as “You Should Know” will be returning and will be distributed as part of the monthly Board of Governors meeting.

Scott asks Board members to engage with their colleagues about the content—ask what they are thinking and how this can fit with their practices. This discussion is framed by the survey. Tomorrow is the first step to take to make a difference.
• Reminder about upcoming dates- Next Board meeting – April 21st, and 3-1-1 License Renewal training on April 7th.
