Sessions

United States Supreme Court Update

Constitutional law scholar Erwin Chemerinsky will review key U.S. Supreme Court decisions of the past year, with a focus on those most likely to impact New Hampshire attorneys.

A live Q&A session follows.

Total Credits: 120 General minutes

The 13th Amendment:

Fixing the Framers Failure

Robert J. McWhirter believes that although the Constitution embodies "created equal" and "the People," the Framers failed to resolve the conflict between freedom and slavery. This talk on the 13th Amendment discusses how America began to grow into itself.

A live Q&A session follows.

Total Credits: 75 General minutes

Q & A Sessions

At the end of each CLE there will be a Q & A session. Members are encouraged to submit their questions during the first half of each session, through the online chat feature.

John Greabe will moderate the Q & A after Dean Erwin Chemerinsky's presentation.

Sweet Finish to Midyear Meeting ~ Chocolate Tasting Social

Victoria Kichuk from Cocoa Beantown

Victoria is a chocolate educator with a decade of experience leading Boston chocolate tours, teaching classes on the history of the cocoa bean, and hosting guided tastings. She has worked as a consultant for chocolatiers, hotels, restaurants, and bake shops, including a chocolate shop in Hiedelberg, Germany. An expert on the subject of chocolate, Victoria has presented at Harvard and M.I.T.

Victoria has experienced the joys of chocolate in many countries scattered across five continents. She looks forward to sharing her love of all things chocolate with our members.

Chocolate Tasting - SOLD OUT!

The New Lawyers Committee (NLC) is sponsoring a Virtual Chocolate Tasting to provide a fun networking opportunity following Midyear Meeting on February 5, 2021. According to Stephanie Tymula, co-chair of the NLC, "We recognize that 2020 has had its challenges, but the NLC really wanted ... to spread some positivity to our fellow New Hampshire lawyers with a fun, upbeat event... what better way is there to awaken everyone's senses than with CHOCOLATE!"

- Receive a box of delicious craft chocolate (gluten free) samples in the mail. Be sure not to eat them ahead of time!
- This special guided tasting event will include plenty of time for questions and discussion.

Thanks to the generous sponsorship of the New Lawyers Committee this event's registration cost is only $12 per person (actual value is $50 per person). The Virtual Chocolate Tasting is not limited to new lawyers but is open to all members.

In order to allow adequate time for shipping, reservation deadline for this event is January 20, 2021.

Register by selecting the Chocolate Tasting while you are selecting the Midyear Meeting sessions you wish to attend.

This event is limited to 100 participants.
