

Family Law / Civil Litigation Attorney

Klug Law Offices is looking to hire an associate attorney that is energetic and self-motivated. We are searching for someone that will fit in with our fast paced and fun-loving firm to support clients and each other. This position offers your own office in our cozy North End location, and the option to work remotely when possible. The right candidate will have significant control over his or her workload, schedule, and income. This is an incentive-based position that will allow you to earn based on your willingness to work. An existing client base is preferred but not required. Some benefits included.

The ideal candidate will possess the following:

- at least two years of experience in family law or other civil field in NH (MA a plus but not required)
- Experience drafting legal documents
- Ability to conduct legal research
- Willingness to initiate cases
- Experience working with clients and other legal professionals to develop strategies for contentious legal battles or settlement
- Ability to effectively communicate with clients about litigation status.

Please submit your cover letter and resume to KWarner@KlugLawOffices.com.
