NHBA Advertising Policy

ADVERTISING POLICY. All submitted advertising is subject to approval by the New Hampshire Bar Association, which produces and distributes the Bar News and other publications. As the publisher, the NHBA reserves the right at any time to decline any advertising which it feels, in its sole discretion, may be inappropriate for its membership and readership. The following is a non-exclusive list of advertising that is unacceptable to the publisher:

- advertising relating to alcoholic beverages or tobacco products;
- advertising by or on behalf of political candidates; as well as political interest groups and lobbyists.
- advertising relating to contests, lotteries, or the offering of prizes based on chance, unless first cleared by the U.S. Postal Service, and unless written proof of compliance with the laws of New Hampshire is supplied;
- advertising that may imply New Hampshire Bar Association endorsement, recommendation, support or approval, unless prior endorsement, recommendation, support or approval has been awarded by the NHBA;
- advertising for products or services that are illegal or whose movement in interstate commerce is prohibited under law;
- advertising that contains unlawful, discriminatory, and/or hate language;
- advertising that advocates a position contrary to that of New Hampshire's judicial system or NHBA's Constitution and/or bylaws;
- advertising that itself violates -- or may encourage or enable another to violate -- the NH Supreme Court Rules of Professional Conduct, even if advertisement is placed by a non-attorney not themselves subject to the Rules. By submitting an advertisement, advertiser attests that to the best of their knowledge, said advertisement is in compliance with the Rules of Professional Conduct. The New Hampshire Bar Association takes no responsibility for ensuring such compliance and will not assume any obligation on member(s) arising as a result of non-compliance.
- advertising that -- in subject matter, content, material, and/or design – may jeopardize the timely mailing status of the publication. The publisher reserves the right to require from the advertiser written proof of clearance from the U.S. Postal Service prior to accepting the ad for publication.

The NH Bar Association, while a non-profit organization, nevertheless has an ongoing obligation to its members to maintain fiscal health. The Bar Association brings in a significant amount of operating revenue throughout the year through a variety of CLE programs it offers. The NHBA has also entered into (or plans to enter into) significant, mutually-beneficial relationships with other organizations, including a number of preferred vendors and exclusive providers. In order for the NHBA to continue to thrive, it is important that these arrangements not be jeopardized.

With this in mind, the NHBA reserves the right to review – and reject, where appropriate – advertising submitted to one or more of its publications on the basis of reasonable concerns that the proposed advertising may compete with the NHBA's own products and/or that said advertising could materially interfere with any existing or planned relationships it has with other organizations. For instance, the NHBA reserves the right to decline advertising for a program that is considered in direct competition with a NHBA CLE program. "Direct competition" includes, but is not limited to, such characteristics as subject matter, audience, event date, and pricing.

When advertisements for outside paid CLE programs are deemed not to be in direct competition with NHBA's offerings, regular advertising rates will ordinarily apply. (Courts, local and county bar associations, and other non-profit organizations promoting a free (no-cost) CLE may request to have advertising fees waived.)

Advertisers are encouraged to contact the NHBA prior to submitting their advertising message if they have any question on whether the ad may be accepted for publication.
