

Assistant Director of Legal Residencies (Lecturer)

The University of New Hampshire Franklin Pierce School of Law (UNH Law), a national leader in practical legal education with a commitment to inclusion, diversity, and quality engagement for all, seeks to hire a Lecturer to serve as Assistant Director of Legal Residencies.

The legal residency program is a foundation of the practical legal training at UNH Law. The program allows students to apply classroom knowledge in a real-world legal setting by working under the supervision of attorneys or other professionals. Through this experience, students build skills, characteristics, and competencies essential to success.

The Assistant Director is a full-time member of the law faculty who participates in faculty governance. The position demands administrative and communication skills necessary to assist with running and promoting a program that involves numerous constituents, including UNH Law staff and faculty, alumni, students, judges, lawyers, and other professional practitioners.

Minimum Acceptable Education & Experience:

- J.D. from an accredited law school.
- Legal practice experience.
- Demonstrated skill at working collaboratively.
- Demonstrated administrative leadership skills.
- Strong interest in all aspects of legal practice and the profession.
- Excellent interpersonal skills, including great listening skills and ability to work with students at times of high stress in their lives.
- Interest in engaging with the national externship and clinical communities.

Knowledge, Skills & Abilities:

- Legal practice experience.
- Experience and interest in mentoring and supervising students.
- High degree of professionalism in all aspects of lawyering.
- Strong interpersonal and teamwork skills.
- Creativity and flexibility in approaching and solving problems.
- Strong interest in all aspects of legal practice, legal education, and the legal profession.
- Flexibility in scheduling and being available for various events to support the program.
- Strong organization skills and ability to manage multiple competing obligations.

Compensation Pay Range:

$85,000-$95,000

The rank of the selected candidate will depend upon the candidate's qualifications.
