Richard Guerriero is an attorney in private practice at Lothstein Guerriero, PLLC in Keene and Concord, where he has been partners with Ted Lothstein since 2013. Prior to entering private practice, he was a Public Defender for 20 years, spending 12 of those years as the Director of Training and Litigation Support for the New Hampshire Public Defender.

Guerriero's practice focuses on criminal defense in state and federal court, both trials and appeals. He handles misdemeanors and felonies, including assaults, drug cases, sex crimes, homicides, and white-collar crimes. He has extensive trial experience and has argued appeals at the United States Supreme Court, the First Circuit Court of Appeals, the New Hampshire Supreme Court, and the Louisiana Supreme Court.

Guerriero was President of the New Hampshire Bar Association for the 2021-2022 term and previously served multiple terms on the NHBA's Board of Governors. He has served on the NHBA's Ethics Committee for many years, and for the last 11 years, he has chaired the NHBA's Annual Ethics CLE.

In 2007, Guerriero was selected as a Fellow in the American College of Trial Lawyers. Richard was recognized as a "Champion of Justice" by the New Hampshire Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers in 2005 and the Louisiana Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers in 1991. In 2009, he was the recipient of the New Hampshire Bar Foundation's Frank Rowe Kenison Award for Community Service. In 2024, he received the New Hampshire Bar Association's Annual Award for Distinguished Service to the Legal Profession. He has previously served on the boards of directors of numerous nonprofit organizations, including the New Hampshire Disability Rights Center and the New Hampshire Public Defender.

Guerriero earned his Bachelor of Arts degree from Louisiana State University, completing the 4-year program in 3 years. He graduated Magna Cum Laude and was inducted into the Phi Beta Kappa Honor Society. He earned Juris Doctor degree from the Paul M. Hebert Law Center at Louisiana State University, where he served on the Louisiana Law Review and after which he clerked for Justice James Dennis at the Louisiana Supreme Court.
