POLICE PROSECUTOR

The Gilford Police Department has an immediate opening for a full-time Police Prosecutor. We are seeking an Attorney and member of the New Hampshire Bar Association who would be responsible for planning, organizing and directing the activities of the Legal Division at the Gilford Police Department. The candidate would provide day-to-day legal advice to officers of the department for police related matters as well as prosecute all department court cases at the District Court level. Qualified candidates will have prosecutorial discretion regarding cases brought before the District Court, in accordance with the mission of the department. The prosecutor works under the general supervision of the Chief of Police. All prosecutorial work is performed independently within established laws, policies and regulations.

Minimum qualifications for this position are: Juris Doctor of Law from accredited University, a member of the New Hampshire Bar Association, Justice of the Peace, experience with practicing in the field of Law, the ability to meet any requirements under the Criminal Justice Information System (CJIS) guidelines needed to view or operate the State Police On-Line Telecommunication System (SPOTS), possess a valid New Hampshire driver's license, successfully pass a full background investigation to include an interview process, Psychological examination and Polygraph examination.

This is a civilian position within the Gilford Police Department. The Town of Gilford offers an excellent benefit package including health insurance, dental insurance, retirement options, as well as paid time off. The position comes with a competitive salary range of $88,696 - $143,606 DOQE.

Cover letters and resumes should be mailed/emailed to: Curtis Mailloux, Lieutenant, Gilford Police Department, 47 Cherry Valley Rd., Gilford, NH 03249, c.mailloux@gilfordpd.gov

The town of Gilford is an Equal Opportunity Employer.